

MM listening exam test results for fall 2009 appear below. In order to get results to you quickly and to preserve confidentiality, results are sorted by the last four digits of your eight digit URID.

The Listening Exam is required for Master of Music degree students in the following majors: performance and literature (PRL), piano accompanying & chamber music (ACM), early music (EMH), conducting (CNC and CNO), opera performance (OPR) and opera stage directing (OPS).

Students must take the Listening Test upon entry to their degree program. If the student does not pass the exam, s/he must either re-take it the following year during the orientation period, or the student may enroll in MHS 435 Concert Repertoire: Museum or Living Art? (and pass it with a grade of B- or better) in lieu of taking the exam a second time. Students who pass the Listening Test may still choose to take MHS 435 as an elective course.
