

06.01.04 Graduate Recitals

Description

06.01.04 Graduate Recitals

Students who intend to graduate at the end of the semester in which they present a degree recital should plan to perform that recital no later than the last day of classes. No degree recitals may occur after the last day of classes for either fall or spring semester.

Graduate students must be enrolled in applied lessons during any semester in which they present a degree recital. If a student was registered for lessons in the previous semester, they must complete their degree recital within the first 2 weeks of the following semester or else s/he must register for additional lessons.

Normally, graduate students majoring in Performance and Literature register for 460A, one-hour lessons. However, students may register for 430A, half-hour lessons with the permission of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies if they have already completed all of their applied lesson requirements, and are preparing their lecture recital (all students) or collaborative recital (DMA PRL Piano students only).
